

Great British Railways Transition Team – Overview & Future of Community Rail

Sarah Williams, Great British Railways Transition Team

8 March 2022

The Team behind the Transition to Great British Railways

Responsible for driving forward reforms and creating the railway's new guiding mind. GBRTT is collaborating with the industry and others to create GBR.

It is focused on:

- Driving a new customer focus and revenue recovery efforts post-pandemic
- Building a whole industry approach and 30-year vision for rail to tackle cost and promoting efficiency
- Establishing a strategic freight unit to boost the sector

Andrew Haines
Leading the Transition Team

Elaine Seagriff
Programme Director
Strategic Planning & Whole
Industry Strategic Plan

Rufus Boyd
Programme Director
Passenger & Freight Services

Michael Clark
Programme Director
Strategy and Transformation

Suzanne
Donnelly
Programme Director
Passenger Revenue &
Marketing

Stewart Fox-Mills
Programme Director
Fares, Ticketing & Retail

Anit
Chandarana
Lead Director

Jeremy Westlake
Chief financial officer

Williams-Shapps Plan for Rail outcomes

1 Modern passenger experience

2 Retail revolution

3 Greater control for local people and places

4 New way of working with private sector

5 Cleaner, greener railways

6 New offer for freight

7 Skilled, innovative workforce

8 Simpler industry structure

9 Increased speed of delivery & efficient enhancements

10

Economic recovery and a financially sustainable railway

Regional approach with supporting HQ.

Indicative only, subject to consultation

